

AQMesh website privacy policy

AQMesh is the brand of a product manufactured by Environmental Instruments Ltd, who are responsible for the website www.aqmesh.com.

This privacy policy explains how Environmental Instruments Ltd uses any information collected about you when you browse the www.aqmesh.com website, and what happens with any contact information you provide to Environmental Instruments Ltd when you complete any of the website's contact forms.

What information is collected?

The personal information collected upon voluntary completion of any of the website's contact forms are the name, email address and company name you supply.

Environmental Instruments Ltd also collects the regional information you supply when stating which country you are enquiring from.

Website usage information is collected through the use of cookies.

How is your information used?

Environmental Instruments Ltd uses the personal information you have supplied in order to respond to your enquiry and provide you with the information you have asked for.

The regional information you provide allows Environmental Instruments Ltd to forward your enquiry to the authorised AQMesh distributor most relevant to your location so that they can support you further. The personal information supplied when you send an enquiry will be passed on to the relevant AQMesh distributor only, as detailed on www.aqmesh.com/contact/global-distributors.

Environmental Instruments Ltd uses only the regional information to compile internal statistical reports on enquiry levels.

Environmental Instruments Ltd will only store the personal information supplied if you have opted to receive marketing communications.

Marketing

Marketing information will only be sent if you have voluntarily subscribed to the AQMesh news feed at www.aqmesh.com/news or have ticked the relevant box on the website contact forms asking to be added to the mailing list.

You can opt out of receiving marketing information at any time by using the unsubscribe link in the received emails or by emailing info@aqmesh.com and asking to be removed from the list.

Access to your information

You have the right to request a copy of the information Environmental Instruments Ltd holds about you. If you would like a copy please email info@aqmesh.com and ask for a copy of any personal data that has been kept following your enquiry.

Cookies

Cookies are text files that are placed on your computer to collect standard internet log information and visitor behaviour information. Environmental Instruments Ltd uses this information to track usage of the website and compile internal statistical reports on website engagement.

For more information about cookies please visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.
